

DROPS OF MAGIC! LIFT OUT CORNS

Sore, touchy corns stop hurting, then lift right out with fingers.

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug freezone recently discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, aching corn or callus and instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it off with the fingers.

Hard corns, soft corns, or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet, shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical.

Ladies! Keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

TORTURED TEXAS WOMAN WRITES

Standing on Her Feet Torture to This Lady—Had to Ride Everywhere She Went, Until Cardui Brought Relief.

McKinney, Texas.—Mrs. A. B. Stovall, of this place, writes: "Some time ago I was in a critical condition. We only lived two squares from town, yet I wasn't able to walk the two squares."

I had to ride everywhere I went and suffered at that, but not so much as when I tried to walk. Standing on my feet was torture.

My greatest suffering was in my right side. It was so sore and I felt if I stepped down or jarred myself the least bit I could not stand it—so just walked mostly tiptoe. This kept up until I was just about discouraged and decided I had best try something else.

Someone told me of Cardui, and where it had benefited cases similar to mine. I felt at least it would not hurt to give it a trial.

After my first bottle I felt better—there was less pain and soreness in my side.

After my third bottle of Cardui I was well and have been ever since."

Cardui may be just what you need. Try it.

BOLSHEVIK PLOT IN RAND REGION REVEALED

LONDON (via Montreal), Jan. 24.—Plans for the establishment of a Bolshevik movement on the Rand, the rich gold mining region of the Union of South Africa, have been unearthed, according to a dispatch to Reuters, limited, today from Johannesburg.

The principals in the plans, styled themselves international socialists, and the movement was inaugurated at the time of the armistice celebrations in South Africa, one of the measures being the issuance of a circular announcing that arrangements for practical cooperation with "brothers in Russia" had been completed.

"Investigations show," adds the dispatch, "that the natives will have nothing to do with the Bolsheviks," the native strike (paseo) last June having caused the natives to lose confidence in the international socialists.

"While free speech is not being interfered with, steps are being taken to insure adequate protection to the public."

"Such an arrangement of parties," says the Times editorial, "would give Germany a strong government, with the indisputable moral right to bind the German state and people."

"Hitherto we had no direct representatives of the German people to deal with. These elections furnish such representatives. Let us recognize their title and lose no time about it."

FINDS NO PARTY HAS MAJORITY IN GERMANY

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Based on its comment upon the final unofficial figures on the results of the German elections for the national assembly as received yesterday from Basel, Switzerland, the Times today points out that no party has an absolute majority in the assembly, but expresses the opinion that there is "every probability of a strong combination between the majority socialists and the democrats (the former radicals, reinforced by some national liberals), together with whatever recruits they may attract from the other groups."

"The Times editorial," says the Times, "would give Germany a strong government, with the indisputable moral right to bind the German state and people."

"Hitherto we had no direct representatives of the German people to deal with. These elections furnish such representatives. Let us recognize their title and lose no time about it."

PROSPERITY ABUNDANT ALL OVER MISSISSIPPI

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 24. (Sp.)—Reports reaching Jackson from all parts of the state, especially the delta, indicate that prosperity in all lines of business is general in the state. Indications are, in fact, that there is more money in Mississippi today than at any previous time in its history.

Business in the delta section was somewhat late in starting before the holidays, but it has kept up full tide ever since, and merchants look for a continuance of this trade until well into the spring. A great deal of cotton is yet to be marketed, and prices are excellent.

Plans are going forward all over the state for the largest crops this season ever raised in the history of the state. Cotton acreage will be slightly increased, but there will be no neglect of the food crops that have brought Mississippi so much money during the war months.

Bank reports show that not only have savings accounts held their own in the face of large purchases of government securities, but have made large gains. Money is available at moderate interest, for any legitimate business enterprise.

ASKS RE-ELECTION.

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss., Jan. 24. (Sp.)—While in the county on official duty, Rush Knox, of Houston, district attorney of this circuit court district, who has held the position for several years, and who recently was almost elected to the supreme bench of the state, has signified his purpose to become a candidate for re-election in the approaching Democratic primaries, counting on his official record to return him to the district attorneyship for another four years' term.

Attorney Knox, who is conspicuous as a prosecutor in murder cases, has represented the state in three in this county at the January term of the circuit court, securing conviction in all of the cases, one prisoner being sent to the penitentiary for life, another committed to an insane asylum and the third sentenced to be hanged.

MARRIAGES

Bowden-David.

COVINGTON, Tenn., Jan. 24. (Sp.)—Lannie Bowden and Miss Earl David, both of the Leigh's Chapel vicinity, were married Wednesday evening at the home of W. L. Bowden, this city, the ceremony being conducted by Rev. J. A. Kelly.

Benton-Hayes.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Jan. 24. (Sp.)—Miss Monica M. Hayes and Weber L. Benton, both of Cleveland, were married Tuesday evening at the First Christian church by the Rev. A. Homer Jordan. Mr. Benton is a nephew of Mrs. B. B. Benton, of this city.

DR. LOWMAN DEAD.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24. (Sp.)—Dr. John H. Lowman, of Cleveland, who represented the first American Red Cross tuberculosis mission in Italy, died here, aged 50. He was president of the National Tuberculosis association. He is survived by the widow and three sons, one of whom is attached to the students training corps at Paris Island, S. C.

Dr. Lowman was a victim of complications resulting from influenza contracted during his work with the mission.
